

Austin Polymer Clay Guild

Robyn Richardson sculpts personalized polymer clay cake toppers, animals, flowers and other figures which she sells through her business Claytopia. (See more at <http://www.claytopia.com>). She'll present the program for the May 6, 2006.

Robyn will demonstrate making the whimsical angel pictured here. The figure can be made with or without the dog.

Bring the following supplies:

- Pasta machine
- Clay in the following colors:
 - flesh
 - brown
 - pink
 - blue
 - white
 - black
- Pink pastel chalk
- Needle point sculpting tool
- Ceramic tile
- Small wooden platform (optional)

Whimsical caricatures and
Easter Egg by Robin
Richardson.

May Meeting

Saturday, May 6th.

10:00 am—12:30 pm

Ralph Yarborough Library

2200 Hancock Dr.

(Burnet Rd and Hancock Dr.)

Mark Your Calendar!

Clay Day

Saturday, June 17th.

10:00 am—2:00 pm

Pflugerville Library

“Bring your clay
and clay with other polyholics.”

Reminder:

Renew your annual membership dues.

Yearly Dues are $24.00